

THE SABAN RESEARCH INSTITUTE

Fiscal Year 2022 Training and Travel Awards

Description: The Saban Research Institute of Children's Hospital Los Angeles has established a program to enable research trainees to attend research-related trainings and present their research at external meetings and conferences. The award covers registration, travel, and other expenses related to attendance.

Applications for virtual and in-person events occurring between July 1, 2021 and June 30, 2022, will be considered.

Award amount: Up to $500 or $1,000* per individual

*If the applicant's mentor commits a minimum of $500 toward the travel and meeting registration costs, TSRI will provide up to $1,000 in award funds, with the trainee receiving a total of $1,500 in support. If no mentor match is offered, TSRI will provide up to $500 in support.

Eligibility:

Applicants must be one of the following:

1. University of Southern California predoctoral graduate student research assistants (RAs) working at CHLA
2. Postdoctoral and clinical research fellows (MD, PhD, or MD/PhD) working at CHLA
(must be employed in a CHLA postdoctoral fellow job code)
3. Nurses in doctoral programs, to be verified by the Institute for Nursing and Interprofessional Research
4. UCEDD fellows

Funding support can be used for either in-person or virtual research-related meetings and trainings. Any travel must be in accordance with CHLA's travel policy and any existing travel restrictions.

If attending a conference or meeting, the applicant must be a presenter and/or co-author on a presentation or talk.

Applicants must be mentored by a full-time, CHLA-based, USC faculty, or an INIR senior researcher.

Applicants may only receive the award once per fiscal year (July 1, 2021 through June 30, 2022).

The application must include a statement of support from the mentor indicating their approval for the trainee to participate in the event.

Deadline: At least four weeks (28 days) in advance of the event date. The funding pool must be expended by June 30, 2022. Therefore, applications received after June 2, 2022 will not be considered.
