

How to Keep Them Awake and Interested: Elements of an Engaging Research Talk

Presenters:

Mark R. Frey, PhD

Associate Professor of Pediatrics and Biochemistry & Molecular Medicine
University of Southern California
Keck School of Medicine
The Saban Research Institute
Children's Hospital Los Angeles

Senta Georgia, PhD

Assistant Professor of Pediatrics and Stem Cell Biology & Regenerative Medicine
University of Southern California
Keck School of Medicine
The Saban Research Institute
Children's Hospital Los Angeles

Friday, March 29, 2019

Noon- 1:30 PM

John Stauffer A&B Conference Room

Children's Hospital Los Angeles

Workshop Synopsis:

- Learn techniques for maximizing the effectiveness of a research presentation
- Discuss the importance of focus and audience tailoring
- Identify common pitfalls/mistakes that can cause you to lose the audience

Target Audience: Fellows, Postdocs, and Faculty at all levels

RSVP Recommended

Kindly RSVP to Tanya Mosesian at:
tinyurl.com/CER-Workshop-How-to-Keep-Them

Lunch will be provided